

LAND YOUR JOB OVERVIEW

This is what all this hard work is for, landing that job once you graduate. Not just any job...the job you've been preparing for! It is in this stage that you'll apply for the positions you're interested in, get the interviews, and wow the hiring manager so you get the offer(s) you're after.

There are 2 primary activities within this stage:

So, how are you going to approach your job search?

For the 32% that are posted	Use credible websites like: LinkedIn, Indeed, and Monster.
For the 68% that are not posted	Use your Network!

Interviewing

Successful job searches ultimately result in job interviews!

Fact: Everyone gets nervous before an interview (some more than others, of course). There are ways to reduce this nervousness or anxiety. We use the following equation as a way to show what you need to do to tackle those nerves:

$$\begin{aligned}
 & \uparrow \text{Research} \\
 + & \uparrow \text{Preparation} \\
 + & \uparrow \text{Practice} \\
 \hline
 = & \downarrow \text{Anxiety}
 \end{aligned}$$

* <http://www.statisticbrain.com/online-employment-job-posting-website-statistics/>