

Full-time English Instructor Position

Overview:

An English training school in Shanghai, China is seeking a qualified English native speaker for a full time English instructor position. Shanghai is the biggest city in China and has been developing rapidly both economically and culturally. It is a beautiful coastal city in East China. More and more foreigners come to Shanghai for travel, business, or investment. There is a significant increase in the amount of foreign teachers coming to Shanghai to help local English training schools.

It is convenient to live in the city. You may easily find supermarkets, restaurants, hotels, banks and post offices, etc. Both Chinese traditional food and American food are conveniently accessible. The food is rather delicious. You may also enjoy many foreigners' night clubs and coffee bars. You will see global brands everywhere in Shanghai, such as McDonald's, Subway, Dairy Queen, Pizza Hut, and Starbucks, etc.

The school was established in 1993. It is one of the best English training organizations nationwide. After rapid development and successful operation for over 20 years, it now has over 100 branches across the country. The school has been receiving many honors since its establishment. It has been receiving a lot of support from the government. It has successfully partnered with many organizations to provide excellent English training service. English is the only language at the school no matter what your native language is. Currently, there are over 100 foreign instructors working for the school. They are enjoying not only working at the school, but also experiencing the lifestyle in Shanghai.

Location:

Shanghai, China

Start Date:

Negotiable

Qualifications:

Speak English as native language. College degree. Previous teaching or tutoring experience preferred, but not required.

Positions available: two (2)

Responsibilities:

20 face-to-face English classes (50 minutes per class) will be delivered to students every work week.

Salary and benefits:

salary is attractive with full benefits depending on experience and qualifications

Accommodation:

A one or two bedroom apartment will be provided for free. Employees may choose to live alone or with a roommate. The apartment is equipped with a bed, refrigerator, television, washing machine, air conditioning, internet connection and other necessary furniture. Utilities will be paid by the school.

Air ticket and bonus:

The school will offer a round trip flight ticket every year. Additionally, the school will pay bonus after one year with satisfactory performance. Based on performance, the bonus may be up to two months' salaries.

Holidays:

The school observes all national holidays.

Work Visa:

The school will be responsible for applying for work visa and taking care of all necessary legal documents.

Contact:

Please send your resume/CV to: usivygroup@126.com